LONDON, 25th March.
Mr. Mundella, M. P. for Sheffield, is ill.

It is reported that the man known as "Nobie One" in connection with the Dublin mutinies has made his escape to Mexico and is now beyond pursuit.

LONDON, 27th March.
The Duke of Cambridge reviewed the Volunteers at Brighton yesterday, when 22,500 Volunteers took part in the manoeuvres, which were unusually successful.

LONDON, 28th March.
The latest advice is that the rebels who had been arrested at Ballincollig, charged with conspiracy to burn Cork, which took place in June last.

LONDON, 29th March.
Advice from Ireland states that twelve members belonging to the Patriotic Brotherhood of Belfast, an organization formed for the murder of landlords, have been sentenced, some for ten, some for five years' penal servitude.

Twenty-one of the rebels arrested at Ballincollig on Tuesday have been released.

LONDON, 30th March.
The report of the Committee on the best colour for the British military uniform recommends gray, retaining scarlet only for full-dress.

Sir W. Harcourt, replying to a question on the House of Commons, and that the late attack on Lady Florence Dixie rests only on her own statement of the affair, the police having discovered nothing.

INDIAN TELEGRAMS.

LAWRENCE, 15th March.
The latest phase of the European resentment to Mr. Iberville's Bill is the preparation of a petition to the Queen praying for Lord Ripon's recall.

Virulent scurrilous attacks on Europeans continue to be made by the Native Press. Funds for the Calcutta Defence Association are readily forthcoming through the press.

Local news is much of the insensitivity of society at Peshawar and the utter incapacity of the police. Robberies by hill people are of nightly occurrence. Similar reports are received from Jammu. Extraordinary measures for the repression of crime are urgently called for.

POONIA, 16th March.
A dacoit took place at new Rangoon, thirty-five miles from Poona, on the night of the 12th inst. The dacoits, numbering about fifty, carried torches, and were armed. They plundered houses of property of the value of Rs. 3,000. No clue has yet been obtained.

RANGOON, 16th March.
A Shan chief shot two of his servants dead in Kamendone, and threatened the police, after shooting himself in his house. Ultimately he surrendered to Mr. Janinson, the Superintendent. Fire arms and double-barrelled guns were found in his house.

A serious dacoit at Shans at the frontier district of Peshawar is reported from Multan. The forest's agent was killed, four followers were dangerously wounded, and Rs. 15,000 worth of property robbed. Mr. Davis, Deputy Commissioner, was on sick leave, and Peshawar was under a Burmese Official.

The Shan chief who was arrested for murdering two of his servants, that is to say, an accidental, and that he only intended to intimidate the two deceased, who had threatened to poison him for not returning to Upper Burma.

SHILLONG, 17th March.
His Excellency the Viceroy, Lady Ripon and suite arrived at half-past five this evening, and were received at Peterhoff by a guard-of-honour of the Volunteers.

CALCUTTA, 22nd March.
At a meeting of the European Anglo-Indian Defence Association, held this afternoon, the president, Mr. Keswick, announced that the subscriptions received exceed half a lakh. A number of letters from ladies in different parts of India were read, requesting the Association to draw up a memorial for the Queen-Empress on behalf of the ladies of India, asking her Majesty to use her influence to procure the passing of the Indian Bill. This the Association agreed to do.

CALCUTTA, 22nd March.
Mr. Prinsep, Private Secretary to the Viceroy, has improved so far as to be able to take carriage exercise. Should no change ensue, he will leave with Captain Beechot for Simla on Saturday, breaking the journey a day at Udaipur and Kalaka.

BOMBAY, 23rd March.
The appeal preferred by "Major" Tucker and three other members of the Salvation Army, against the Magistrate's decision imprisoning them for disobeying Police orders, was heard before a full bench of the High Court yesterday. Major Tucker pleaded his own case. After a patient hearing the Bench suggested that the Salvationists should come to terms. Major Tucker, in a hasty voice, said: "The Lord has laid upon me no obligation to go to prison, and if my friends and those of this city to whom they owe a debt, not if it would save me from hanging." The application was dismissed.
